

The Comedy Asylum: Our Group Agreement

1. We are here to nurture and support creative talent.
2. We do our best to build each other up and help each other feel good.
We respect each other.
3. We do not put each other down or deliberately say or do things likely to make people feel bad.
4. No bullying.
5. We are welcoming and inclusive. No one is excluded or belittled on the basis of their race, gender, age, weight, sexuality, ability or physical appearance.
6. We respect the locations we work in.
7. We promote accessibility.
8. We use humour and compassion to support people during meltdowns.
9. We use constructive criticism to give honest feedback to each other's material.
10. We are pro-active, not reactive wherever possible.
11. We do our best to be mindful of others' triggers.
12. We are one big happy family.
13. We will be immortalised!
