ArtBeat Band Night

Three diverse bands for you: Weallfallsilent are an Indie-Rock band based in Leicester. Melancholic melodies are laid on top of a wall of sound. ZeroCub is a hip-hop duo - instrumentalist, Dogcub and rapper, Zeropence. Incorporating guitar, bass and cello, they offer a unique sound. TapTonic's repertoire is diverse and the arrangements add a quirky twist to the timeless classics and recent compositions of today.
